SATURDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1862.

A CHAPTER OF FOLLIES.

It is impossible to take a stroll through town, and read the daily papers, without being surprised that our illustrious public believers in its wisdom and imagines Buenos Aires an Athens of the 19th century.

In front of Mr. Dowse's steam boat office we see the Fonda of "22 million free Italians," although the premises would not accommodate that number of cats. The Chief of Police, in his crusade against sign-boards, should have removed so alarming a title; a table d'hote for such a house would exhaust the market.

The carts for carrying garbage from the Custom-house have no covering, and merchandize suffers considerably in bad weather, while we are talking about building docks and stores, let us see about carpeting, which are less expensive and quite as necessary.

Capital punishment is all but abolished, and philanthropy permits, only 1 per cent of murderers to be shot; yet human life is so little valued that we suffer a number of boys, to be drowned monthly without putting a penny to the [illegible]en are so particular about the treatment due to a horse as to gallop, even in a rainy day, in the suburban [illegible]bolly uncared for, and at present making [illegible]nations in calle Sta. Fe. [illegible]man folly has no limit!

[illegible] danger of all surrounding [illegible]fices.

The Paseo Julio and other pro[illegible]es are fast assuming the [illegible]ce of the Alameda of [illegible]while the hat goes ro[illegible]rribution and social [illegible] statues offensive to [illegible] spirit of republica[illegible]

"absent friend" bores 3000 readers with crude notions of Europe and false appreciations of their local politics, while our present friends devote all their attention to the Ocean circus instead of cotton-planting or other terra firma matters,

No more than six horses are allowed to go the river together, but any quantity of wild cattle over-runs the quintas near the killing-grounds, and sometimes a stray bullock runs foul of a man in the streets.

The native press give each other hard knocks for 29 days in the month, and shakehands on the 30th when meeting in the Minister's bureau, for the subsidy. Next day all four declaim against the flesh-pots of Egypt.

Dogs are muzzled to prevent barking, but any one, who fancies himself aggrieved by an independent writer, may create an awful noise and nuisance by threatening accusation &c. As, however, in the case of canines, barking is harmless, for they never bite.

Insurance companies are multiplying, fires happen now and then, but no adequate [illegible] known in Argentina mythology; we have no fire-men to work our no miniature engines, nor any water to put on them.

We don't need to take care of the Patagonian coast, by building a navy to defend Tierra del Fuego; meantime the Chaco Indians kill and rob all before them because we are keeping the wrong side.

Too many steamers going to Montevideo ruins the trade, yet some days we have none at all, and others again a plurality.

An immense sum was laid out on the Colon Theatre, but it is only a mural ornament: Bullfights, Opera, Circus, all gone and even the French Bazaar prefers the Club de Pelota to theirs. Why not put the Post-office in Celati?

The ecclesiastical question agitates Montevideo profoundly, while our Chief of Police commits with impunity the greatest atrocities in the Civil Court's parole. The Jewish 7 branch candlestick has nothing to do with Catholicity, nor has Dr. Escalada any title to the Archbishop's cross: cubiculo-ambulo is the key-stone. Josephine and his brethren have not yet come on: we suppose architect Cazon will dress them in chiripas, instead of frisee coats.

The native of the country has turned her back on the prison she looks like a white-quaker, and goes white-washed once a year. The pede in her hand is too long for a walking-stick, and would be better employed in prodding lazy officials, as the corretores Jo their oxen.

"Argentine Celebrities" would be a nice collection got up by M. Lacroix, but then some one in authority must be sure. Sosa, in the Sucesos without a "Cabo," and D. Pepe de la Cazuela turned the whole thing into as great a farce as the prosecution of the STANDARD about the G. Meeting articles.

Railways, flour-mills, gasworks &c, are cited as evidences of our enterprise and progress, but they never pay a dividend, and it's patriotic foreigner subscribes for the S. Juan mines he is snubbed for his pains.

"Count Cavour's cigar-shop" is seen in calle Buen Orden, but the poor gentleman is no more, and though he may have ruined his health by smoking, like Mazzini, we yearn after Cavour, as his living ever reeks a tobacconist.

Noche buena means that vigil when everyone must pass a bad night; yet we pay serenos 75$ a month to keep them awake all seren-ing and lose our locks before morning.

JUDICIAL IRREGULARITIES.

We read in yesterday 'morning's' Tribuna, what one Nicasio Soto accused of murder, and convicted of the crime, has been sentenced to four year's imprisonment, with hard labour, in the public works. No extenuating circumstances attending the murder have been published, beyond the fact that the murderer, when he committed the crime was only 17 years of age, and the murdered man 21. Now the murderer himself, or his next of kin,—at the hazard of being brought up before the judges and tribunals, on a criminal charge,—is never allowed to appear at the tribunal [illegible] towards a criminal.—It may [illegible] considered by some injudicious as an attack, as it were, the sentiments of justice, to invoke the [illegible] in favour of criminals; but crimes are so numerous, murders so frequent, that it would be a desideration of days on any of a day.

DOWN WITH ABUSES.

To the Editors.

Since there's a hard[illegible] seems to be [illegible] thereby [illegible] of refuge for the [illegible] of the Irish Consul-[illegible] in Buenos Ayres, might I ask [illegible] corner in your columns, to ob[illegible] the pay of no less [illegible]

ne paper, we read that Julian Ayala has been condemned to be executed for a murder committed nearly 4 years ago. We are curious to know why this man was arrested, and how long he has been lying in prison.

We have been informed that, in the receptacle of crime, the cacao block is found in the most prominent part of the city, to offend the sight, criminals lie months, and even years, awaiting their trial. We have also been informed that the system of drafting convicts into the army is still pursued and as a natural consequence, many of the veteran troops are nothing more nor less than a set of "Sicket of leave men" equal to every crime or calamity.

We have been informed that Colonels and commanders in this country are not responsible for the acts of their men, without any doubt an amusing housekeeper.

If we have been misinformed in these matters, we only ask to be set right; but if our information is correct, why may we ask are people punished in many foreign orders or outrages being committed why should they be astonished if a policeman wear swords, when an incipient murderer may run them through with a fascine, and only get 4 years imprisonment for it?

To remedy the currency may be attended with difficulties, but to reform our tribunals appears an impossibility. So long as justice is administered, crime will be on the increase. A general gaol delivery is a thing unheard of here. A prison inspector whose business is to report to the public every month, is an unknown idea in these regions. If we look for such an officer, people will think we have gone mad. "When ignorance is bliss 'tis folly to be wise.

EDITORS TABLE.

Thirty three thousand ounces exported to carry out an exchange idea, is a novelty in the Buenos Aires money market. The profits arising out of the transactions have been enormous: it goes to prove that it is the activity, what money is to be made.

The value of a Dollar in the United States, we regret to say, has become the subject of dispute,—It not being clearly expressed in the contract whether the Dollar was to be paid in specie, or paper, a question arose which has been decided by our tal-nted friend, Mr. C. Sta. Maria, the president of the Bolsa. He is generally rules that where no express to the contrary, a Dollar is a current Dollar, and that consequently payment here should be according to the value of the paper, not the gold Dollar.

There is a sarcastic tone in the reply of the Ocean Circus, which will be relished by our readers, although we fear even Com. Escoja's English translator will hardly be equal to the severity of the American's philippic.

Our Rosario friends seem to be taking leave of their senses. All aigh in the plaza under arms, with the bug bear of an Indian invasion. What a scandalous humbug! and yet we are informed in that city there are comisarios, soldiers, police without number! The indignant citizens have good reason to complain.

Strange rumours are going about town concerning General Urquiza, and Colonel Revolution. We have let one opinion on the subject. It pains us to be mistrusted in our writing with an iron hand. Take from the revolutionary promise the means of reform, and it is an end to all disturbances.

Strange enquiries are going on about the Currency ques tion. It is all a humbug, however, without specie, nothing can be done and this can only be introduced by way of a [illegible]

THE OCEAN CIRCUS.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The Director of the Ocean Circus, presuming that the amenities recognized amongst editors in North America were in vogue amongst Editors in South America, made a communication to the gentlemen of the Press, which was intended to be conciliatory, though dignified and firm—

There was no expectation of receiving the rise of the knights of the quill in such a lordly manner—the Director of the Circus being in every instance a stranger to the communication was perhaps unnecessarily verbose, but its extreme length bears a decided comparison to some of his critical friends, with whom the [illegible] Leads was said to possess. Both [illegible] of satire, or pretty well to [illegible] plentifully interspersed [illegible] they point to a rich [illegible] have been [illegible] the [illegible] dig a certain [illegible] sed in the [illegible] the Director [illegible] to be expressed and [illegible] speed.

The [illegible] the [illegible] Nacion Argentina and [illegible] literate amongst [illegible] ness and [illegible] the question [illegible] ed to [illegible] ing [illegible] ed [illegible] ing [illegible] ed [illegible] ing [illegible] ed

COTTON-SEED—The four bags, per Lady of the Lake, were brought ashore on Wednesday the 17th inst. in Mr. Casares' lighter, but have not yet reached this office, being probably placed in quarantine, until the year of grace 1869.

ANTI-CAPITALISM.—It is remarked that most of the new Justices of Peace are ultra-provincialists, which incident will of course have its effect in the elections of 1863.

NEW SUPPLEMENT.—On the arrival of next French packet 30th inst we will give out a special edition of European news, three times the size of the "Tribuna" supplement, and so every fortnight.

OCEAN CIRCUS.—We are requested by Mr. Rogers to rectify the statement that appeared in yesterday's paper, as to some of the Co. going about with whips. Happily the performers are resolved to keep the matter in the arena of literary warfare.

GOOD-LUCK.—An Italian pulpero of the Barracas district, called Large, drew 20,000 $ m/c in Thursday's lottery, which he celebrated with rockets and other public rejoicing.

MONEY BAGS.—Notwithstanding the opinion that public amusements are a failure, in this city we learn that the Ocean Circus netted 6,000 patacones in 9 days, and the Irish prima donna left our port with a bank-order for £ 1500.

JEREMIAH FREE.—The Argentine Consul in Venezuela writes stating that beef has gone up to half an ounce per quintal, and recommends shipments from this port.

ROSARIO.—The population was thrown into a state of dreadful alarm on Monday night by the report, which circulated like wild fire, that the Indians, over 5,000 in number, were coming on the town and were already three leagues distant.

The troops marched out, drums beat to quarters and the tocsin called the citizens to assemble in arms, and found next morning that there was no motive for alarm.

GENERAL O'BRIEN.—We have seen a very fine oil-portrait of this distinguished officer at the House Agency office of Mess. Davis and Co.

It was taken for his daughter in Chile very shortly before his death, which occurred in Lisbon when he was making arrangements to return to Buenos Aires.

WASHERWOMEN.—We read in the Siglo that 4 nymphs of the beach had a professional quarre', and were hauled in custody. The cause of dispute does not appear but may yet furnish a causa celebre.

SALTO.—Banda Oriental, Dn. Mariano Gonzalez one of the residents of this locality has discovered an immense quarry of limestone of very superior quality.

It is believed that the manufactured article will be profitably worked at 20 per cent cheaper, than that of Montevideo.

SR. SEOANE, Peruvian Minister has left for Rio Janeiro per French steamer Solutango.

We believe his accence will be of short duration.

FIFTY DOLLARS.—Double prices! It is a great pity that the means of making money do not keep pace with those of spending in this otherwise happy city of Buenos Ayres,

We are informed that the entrance fee to the French Bazaar will be fifty dollars,any more or less eight shillings.

This will effectually close the doors to many who wouldgo if a moderate price wasasked, and thus reduce the number of purchasers of the goods inside.

This shows an increase on the Pedrabardo and Ocean Circus rates of entrance: by and by, we shall not be astonished if we pay 500 dollars for a seat in Colon.

It seems that the managers of these entertainments consider we are all citizensopole in Buenos Ayres. They are very greatly mistaken.

The wool market is dull ing down, and the arrivals from the camp are less each day owing to the farmers refusing to send their wool in during the holidays. To-day there was positively nothing done in the plazas, and the poor farmers are obliged to store their wool. Many are thinking of shipping on their own account, through a certain English house, which advances 80 p% on the invoice. The causes are going from home to honor the camp, trying to get wool to bring in, but the Irishman are too wise do a wake, and if the buyers dont become a little more liberal, the camp will decide to be more active there will be vessels soon leaving in ballast, as it is soon total to many of our shipowners whether they sell wool or tallow.
